GOOD BYE, SMITH.

The managers of the Republican Cam paign Committee in Kentucky have cor pleted all arrangements to contest the election of W. B. Smith, the one Bryan Elector who was given his certificate by the State Canvassing Board.

Notice of contest will be served on Mr Smith within a week and the taking of depositions for the plaintiff will begin as oen as the notice is served.

The Republican Campaign Committee claims to have in its possession most com-plete and startling evidence of fraud which will show almost beyond a doubt that McKinley really carried the state by over 5,000 plurality instead of between 200 and 300.

The Committee claims that at leas

,000 men were allowed to repeat by simply going from voting places in one pre-cinct to another in the First Congres-sional District. Names of hundreds of men who thus swelled the silver Democratic majority to nearly 14,000 in the First District are claimed to be in the possession of the Committee. Fraud of only less magnitude is charged against the silver Democrats in the Second, Third, Fourth, Sixth and Tenth Districts. The evidence, it is said, will be so overwhelming that Elector Smith will ever be able to cast his vote for Bryan Besides repeating and ballet-box stuff-ing there are many irregularities charged, uch as failure to properly sign the pollpooks in many precincts and refusal to count Republican votes legally cast.

New York Journal.

A singular fact about Queen Victoria i that she has not only always enjoyed ex-ceptionally good health and that even at her present advanced age she is unusu-ally strong and well, but that she has had more hairbreadth escapes than any other sovereign in history. No fewer than seven attempts have been made on her life, and there have been many occa-

A bricklayer was the next seeker after otoriety. He fired at the Queen as she rode in her carriage, on July 9th, 1849, but his pistol missed, and he was sen-tenced to seven years' transportation.

Less than a year after this, as Her Maesty was returning from a visit to the deathbed of her uncle, the Duke of Cam-bridge, an ex-Captain of Hussars rushed forward and struck her on the face with a small stick. The blow caused a wound, but the Queen was not seriously hurt.

It was 1872 before another attack was made. In the early part of that year a boy ran up to the Queen with a pistol and a petition. He was arrested before he could fire, however, and was declared insane. Ten years later a madman named Robert Maclean aimed a pistol and shot at the Queen as she entered her carriage at Windsor Railway Station.

On many other occasions the Queen has been within an ace of death. When

A yachting excursion was the occasion of an alarming accident when the Queen was a girl of 14. SONS AND DAUGHTERS, FOR ALL THE FAMILY.

With the close of the Presidential campaign The Tribune recognizes the fact that the American people are now anxious to give their attention to home and business interests. To meet this condition, politics will have far less space and prominence, until another state or National occasion demands a renewal of the tight for the principles for which The Tribune has latored from its inception to the present day and won its greatest victories.

Every possible effort will be put forth and money freely spent to make The Weekly Tribune pre-eminently a National Family Newspaper, interesting, instructive, entertaining and indispensable to each member of the family.
